Looks great Erik. I will turn it in for payment. It appears all the equipment will be here for Rockwood the week of the 20th. I am on vacation the week of 6/12 through Saturday, 6/18. RV trip taking one of our granddaughters to Sparks Nevada to an animal sanctuary. I may have to make the start date, Tuesday, 6/21, so I confirm all the equipment has come in, unless everything is here by Friday, 6/17. The good news is that it is similar in size to MLK and since it is so close, the guys can work 9 or 10 hour days if they want to try and stay on schedule.

The next ones are Marysville and Bothell, Washington. They are about 30 mins apart on I5. I am ordering the equipment together, so we will have to discuss how best to proceed? I am pushing that we keep using Andrew and Mike, but there is a 20% chance Ken will want to use our own team. I will know by the time we are completed with Rockwood. IF it works for you and the guys, maybe we could have them go up for 4-5 days, come home and go up the next week and do the second one. Just a thought. It might be better for your scheduling to skip a week in-between to do some of your work? Or you can get out and focus on your work. Let me know what you think? dave
